

April 6, 1862 Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee

Gunner's Mate Herman Peters of the Tyler goes ashore to relay firing instructions from the Union Army as the gunboats Tyler and Lexington turn back the final Confederate assault, saving General Grant's army from destruction. Southern General Beauregard told his men that the Yankee "gunboats alone saved him from complete disaster."

